IF YOU WISH TO COME AFTER ME
YOU MUST DENY YOURSELF,
TAKE UP YOUR CROSS,

and follow me.

MARK 8:34

Take
up your cross

"Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me."

MARK 8:34

When we truly believe that all we have is a gift from God, then we must be willing to give up some things so that we can share our blessings as God intended. Living a stewardship lifestyle means not only being responsible for our own life, but the lives of others as well.

Dear Parishioners,

We hear from our Lord this weekend: "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the Gospel will save it" (Mark 8:34-35). In these words, our Lord upends the preconceptions of those who believe that He is the Messiah who is to enter Jerusalem and establish a new Israel in a political and military sense, and He reveals Himself to be the Suffering Servant as prophesied by Isaiah, who will bring a deeper healing through His Sacrifice.

This revelation is so scandalous that even His disciple Peter comes to reproach our Lord by foretelling such horrible things, but to the surprise of those who knew His closeness to Peter, the Apostle receives a public rebuke in his own right: "Get behind me, Satan. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do" (Mark 8:33). So quickly after his profession of faith that Jesus is the Christ, the Anointed One, the Messiah who is to bring salvation, Peter denies the means by which He has chosen to bring that salvation. He cannot fathom that God would choose such suffering as a way to bring salvation to Israel.

Peter reveals to us a common trait in fallen humanity through his inability to see the value of the Cross, let alone how God would come to experience suffering. This is a great stumbling block for many religions, when they look upon the truth of Christianity. It is impossible for any "god" to suffer in the way that we proclaim happens to Christ. It is bewildering for them to even ponder how a "god" would take on human nature and to die.

In the earliest days of Christianity, there were some who even tried to contort this truth by saying that Jesus only "pretended" to suffer and die, or what the disciples witnessed on Good Friday was merely a "show" of suffering by Jesus who did not really have a human body to begin with. Such thinking as this was an attempt to shape the Gospel in such a way as to make it more palatable to the times. Since it was inconceivable to think of any "god" suffering, let alone assuming the totality of human nature, then some would contort the reality of Jesus Christ in such a way as to make it more acceptable. Surprisingly, the habits of ancient heresy repeat themselves in the history of the Church. The truth that we all believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God who assumed the totality of human nature and suffered, died, and was raised from the dead, is something that we may take for granted nowadays, and yet, there was a time, when this was denied by even those who called themselves Christian.

Again, such individuals were more constricted by the thinking of the world and still needed to be fully converted to the Gospel. In our own day and age, there are many who call themselves Christian, but because they are overly attached to the thinking of the world rather than the what is revealed in Jesus Christ, they contort the Gospel to be more palatable to the world.

As we come before our Lord today, we pray that He may purify our minds and hearts to receive the truth and to carry the cross which may come from it. Only then, will we be His disciples.

In the Hearts of Jesus & Mary,

Father Kristian Teater

Joke of the Week

An optimist and a pessimist could never quite agree on any topic of discussion. One day the optimist decided he'd found a way to pull his friend out of his continually pessimistic way of thinking.

The optimist owned a hunting dog that could walk on water. He would take the pessimist and the dog out duck hunting from a boat. The men were in the middle of the lake when the optimist shot a duck, and the dog immediately walked across the water, retrieved the bird, and returned to the boat.

The optimist looked at his friend and asked, "What do you think about that?" The pessimist replied, "That dog can't swim, can he?"

SENIOR MOMENTS

I SPEAK TO MARY

Are you caring for a loved one who is ill or near death? Do you have children, family members or friends you who are struggling in relationships, financially, with depression or mental illness? Is there someone in your life who is struggling with their faith? I would like to share a prayer to the Blessed Mother, from Your Sorrow Is My Sorrow, by Joyce Rupp.

*Mary, you have been there before me,
weary and worn out from the long vigil,
saddened by the pain of your loved one,
heartbroken over what you could not change.*

*Your valiant stance beneath the cross tells me of your unceasing love.
Long years of unfailing faith upheld you.
I, too, am standing with a loved one
who hangs upon the cross of suffering.
I, too, am powerless to help.
Teach me how to stand beneath this cross.*

*Woman of Compassion, Mother of Sorrows,
I draw inspiration from your journey.
I, too, can move through the pain
of the present situation.
Your faith and courage lead me to my own.*

When you have a deep love for someone, you will feel their pain in your own heart. May your faith, the love of family and friends comfort you during this time. Please know Father Teater, Deacon Jim and I are available to talk, listen and pray with you.

UNDERSTANDING AND RESPONDING TO DEMENTIA-RELATED BEHAVIOR

Presented by the Alzheimer's Association
Hosted by South Grand Senior Ministry
An educational program will be held on Thursday,

October 18th, 6:30 - 8:00 p.m. in the Father Keaney Center.

Behavior is a powerful form of communication and is one of the primary ways for people with dementia to communicate their needs and feelings as the ability to use language is lost. However, some behaviors can present real challenges for caregivers to manage. Join us to learn to decode behavioral messages, identify common behavior triggers and learn strategies to help intervene with some of the most common behavioral challenges of Alzheimer's disease.

This is a FREE program; however reservations are requested to prepare for seating and materials by Tuesday, October 16th. Ann: 481-7543.

BECOMING A STEPHEN MINISTER

Stephen Ministers are laypeople trained to provide one-to-one Christ centered care. They have a compassionate heart for those who are hurting and they're equipped with caring ministry skills through their training and study. A Stephen Minister meets with their Care Receiver once a week to listen, care, pray, encourage and offer emotional and spiritual support. The relationship is confidential, so no one else is aware of the Stephen Minister, unless the Care Receiver chooses to share it.

St. Paul encourages us to consider this care:

"Bear one another's burdens, and in this way, you will fulfill the law of Christ." Gal 6:2

"Therefore encourage one another and build up each other." 1 Thess: 5:11

Has God placed this ministry in your heart? Come find out more about Stephen Ministry at informational meetings happening in the next few weeks. Watch the bulletin for details. Or, for more information about the Stephen Ministry program call: Debbie – 314-481-9385.

WHY ARE THEY ASKING FOR THIS?

Recently we have been requesting information for an emergency contact person. Did you wonder why are we asking for this?

There have been times that one of us at the rectory have tried several attempts to contact parishioners with no success, or a Communion Minister knocks on the door and no one answers. It causes us concern for you. Various scenarios run through our minds, such as; what if you are home and something is wrong; or if you are in the hospital? Most importantly, we want to know if you are safe.

SEASON OF CREATION
SEPTEMBER 1 - OCTOBER 4

As we continue our pilgrimage through the Season of Creation, we try to take each step mindfully and to contemplate the wonders of Nature that Jesus also experienced in His earthly journey.

Jesus must have found refreshment by the Sea of Galilee or in the fishing boats of his friends, and we too honor the gift of water, the element which comprises 70% of this precious blue planet. St. Francis of Assisi spoke lovingly of "Sister Water," and Pope Francis reminds us that "fresh drinking water is an issue of primary importance" (Laudato Si', #27).

Action Steps:

- ♦ Water is a universal right of all living beings. Reject its privatization: take back the tap and refuse to buy bottled water.
- ♦ Waste from factory farms, (the source of almost all meat products), contaminates ground water. Greatly reduce food intake from animals (one quarter-pounder requires 600 gallons of water) and buy from small, local farmers.
- ♦ Rivers, lakes, and oceans are choked with plastic pollution which is killing marine life. Refuse plastic straws in restaurants and bring reusable shopping bags to the store.

Ecological Council for prayer and ritual

Immaculate Heart of Mary will be presenting Advent by Candlelight for the ladies of the Parish on Sunday, December 2nd. For more information, please call Bernie Will (314) 541-5297.

Offering Envelopes

Dear Parishioners,

Postage/shipping has become a rather costly issue when it comes to mailing out envelopes each month. I contacted Our Sunday Visitor, who prints/mailes our monthly envelopes, and we worked out a way to save approximately $400 a year in shipping cost.

The change: At the end of December you will be receiving January & February's envelopes and then at the end of February you will receive March and April, and so on for the year. In other words you will be receiving 2 months at a time, starting in January 2019. It might take a bit of getting use to. I will continue to put a reminder in bulletins often between now and December.

Thank you for your understanding! Ann

IS GOD CALLING YOU?

TABLE OF PLENTY

Might God be calling you to serve? Are you feeling you need to do something meaningful? Do you have extra time on your hands and feel the need to help others? Here is an opportunity to do just that!

We are in need of more volunteers to provide dinners for members of the parish who are ill, homebound or recently home from the hospital.

Depending on the need, you would be called once a month or maybe just a few times a year. You would make (part of the dinner you are already preparing for your family) or purchase a meal from Kenricks, Bread Co, or prepared meals from Dierberg's or Schnucks, etc. You would then deliver the meal to the parishioner at the time the two of you agree upon.

If you are interested or have any questions, please call Faith at 314-352-8671.
