
God so loved the world
that he gave his only Son.
— John 3:16a

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son…"
John 3:16

Is your love conditional? Is there a price others have to pay to receive your love? Are you generous with your time, money and possessions? If you give someone something, do you expect something in return? Do you give your time freely or do you "fit it in" when it's convenient for you? Pray for a grateful and generous heart.

SENIOR MOMENTS

COMMUNITY IN ACTION!!

As Tim and I were headed to our car parked on the west side of church this past Sunday following 10:00 a.m.Mass, I noticed one of our dear seniors sitting in her wheel chair talking with a couple from our parish.

I was very happy to see Marcie. A month or so ago, she told me that after years of having two lovely women bring Eucharist to her in her apartment, she thought she would try taking "Call A Ride" to Mass. Marcie really missed being at Mass and in the church. She also missed community.

As I approached I discovered that the Call A Ride shuttle arrived at the wrong side of the church and he left without her! She was left stranded. Thankfully Al and Eileen stopped to ask if she needed assistance. They called her son and I contacted Call A Ride. I was told they would come back, but it would take forty minutes.

It is nice to have a service to take you places, which gives you a little more independence, however you must be patient, because it isn't always timely. Marcie requested a 9:10 a.m. pickup; driver arrived at 8:40 a.m. She requested an 11:00 a.m. return….it ended up being 12:10 p.m. I reveal this because it touches my heart that Marcie has such a desire and determination to be at Mass in her parish, that she was willing to sacrifice almost four hours to make it happen. Marcie has impressed and inspired me for years; this is yet another reason to respect her perseverance.

It touched my heart that during the waiting process, Father Teater came out to make sure all was well, he stayed and visited, he even safely wheeled Marcie onto the ramp of the shuttle. Tim stayed on the east side of the church, just in case the bus returned to the wrong destination. Al and Eileen also stayed to make sure Marcie was OK until her ride arrived. Marcie had missed community, and look what the Lord delivered, compassionate caring people. It was a lovely day. We enjoyed the beautiful breeze as we spent timing visiting. Having that time together was an unexpected gift of the day. Seeing concern and compassion in action was priceless. Marcie, nice having you back!

Dear Parishioners,

For the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, the Church reflects upon the central mystery of faith revealed by Jesus Christ, that God is One and yet exists as three Persons. He is not merely the One who has existed from all eternity, but He is revealed as a communion of Love within Himself. Being a divine union of Goodness and Love, God's nature seeks to diffuse itself, and thus it is fitting that the Father should have another equal to Himself who can receive all that He is, who is the Son. Being equally divine and sharing in the same nature that seeks to diffuse itself, it is fitting that the Son shares in the Father's complete self-offering, and their heavenly exchange is the Holy Spirit.

St. Augustine used the reality of love to explain the Trinity, calling the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit: the One who Loves, the Beloved, and the Love-between (On the Holy Trinity, Book 8, chapter 7). Love seeks to share itself as well as to create a union with the one who is loved. The Father being infinite Love calls for an infinite Person being able to receive such Love, and having received this infinite Love, the Son offers Himself completely, and the bond of union being infinite Love is the Holy Spirit.

The many attempts of explaining the Trinity can only go so far, as we are speaking of the nature of God. This has led to many errors, which tend to exaggerate an element of His true nature to the detriment of some other aspect. One such example would be that of modalism, which attempts to explain the unity of God by saying that the Father, Son and Holy Spirit are only three manifestations of the one God, as if God were a "shape-shifter" who poses as Father or the Son or the Holy Spirit. If this were true, then when our Lord is praying to the Father, He would only be talking to Himself, and such a position ignores the many Scriptural references to there being three divine Persons.

While conceptual descriptions may elude some, many appeal to the family as a reflection of this mystery. The human person, of course, is a creature, so the analogy falls short, but given that we are made in God's image, then we do reflect His nature to some degree. Within the human family that is seeking to fulfill its vocation, we see a husband and wife pouring themselves out of love for one another and drawing together into a special bond of union. Couples who have been faithful to this over time are recognized by others as a union, such that one is never thought without the other, and their fidelity to their vocation also yields life seen in their children. Thus, there is a reflection of the divine One who Loves, the Beloved and the Love-Between in the union of spouses and in their children, and therefore, we see the ultimate foundation of the dignity of the married vocation.

Next week, we will celebrate Fathers' Day. May our reflection of the mystery of the Trinity prepare us to honor those men who have reflected the love of God within their families and have witnessed to the faith.

Remember that next weekend will also be our Food Truck Party: "Food & Fun at IHM!" Please pray for good weather and good attendance. Thanks to all who have worked so hard to bring it together! Another note of thanks will be forthcoming.

In the Hearts of Jesus & Mary,

Father Teater
