SOMETIMES BY STEP (MULLINS)

Oh God, You are my God,
And I will ever praise You
Oh God, You are my God,
And I will ever praise You
And I will seek You in the morning
And I will learn to walk in Your ways
And step by step You'll lead me
And I will follow You all of my days.....
And I will follow You all of my days
And I will follow You all of my da----ys
And step by step You'll lead me,
and I will follow You all of my days.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you,
we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer,
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading

John 3:1-5, 10

The word of the LORD came to Jonah, saying:
“Set out for the great city of Nineveh, and announce to it the message that I will tell you.”

So Jonah made ready and went to Nineveh, according to the LORD’S bidding. Now Nineveh was an enormously large city. It took three days to go through it. Jonah began his journey through the city, and had gone but a single day’s walk announcing, “Forty days more and Nineveh shall be destroyed, “when the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast and all of them, great and small, put on sack-cloth.

When God saw by their actions how they turned from their evil way, he repented of the evil that he had threatened to do to them; he did not carry it out.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 25:4-5, 6-7, 8-9

R. (4a) Teach me your ways, O Lord.

Your ways, O LORD, make known to me;
teach me your paths,
Guide me in your truth and teach me,
for you are God my savior.

R. Teach me your ways, O Lord.

Remember that your compassion, O LORD, and your love are from of old.
In your kindness remember me,
because of your goodness, O LORD.

R. Teach me your ways, O Lord.

Good and upright is the LORD;
thus he shows sinners the way.
He guides the humble to justice and teaches the humble his way.

R. Teach me your ways, O Lord.

Second Reading

1 Cor 7:29-31

I tell you, brothers and sisters, the time is running out. From now on, let those having wives act as not having them, those weeping as not weeping, those rejoicing as not rejoicing, those buying as not owning, those using the world as not using it fully. For the world in its present form is passing away.

Alleluia

Mk 1:15

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

The kingdom of God is at hand.
Repent and believe in the Gospel.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

Mk 1:14-20

After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God: "This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel."

As he passed by the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting their nets into the sea; they were fishermen. Jesus said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." Then they abandoned their nets and followed him. He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John.

They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Offeratory Song

THE SUMMONS (ROBERT KOCHIS)

1. Will you come and follow me
if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know
and never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown?
Will you let my name be known,
will you let my life be grown in you and you in me?

2. Will you leave yourself behind
if I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind
and never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare should your life attract or scare?
Will you let me answer prayer
in you and you in me?

3. Will you let the blinded see
if I but call your name?
Will you set the prisoners free
and never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean and do such as this unseen,
and admit to what I mean in you and you in me?

Holy

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Memorial Acclamation

When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup,
we proclaim your Death, O Lord,
until you come again.

Our Father

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come,
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil. Amen.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and for ever.

Lamb of God

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. Lamb of God you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Communion Songs

LORD, YOU HAVE COME (GABARAIN)

1. Lord, You have come to the seashore
Neither searching for the rich nor the wise.
Desiring only that I should follow....

CHORUS

O Lord, with Your eyes set upon me,
Gently smiling, You have spoken my name.
All I long for I have found by the water,
At Your side, I will seek other shores....

2. Lord, see my goods, my possessions;
In my boat You find no power, no wealth.
Will You accept, then, my nets and labor?

3. Lord, take my hands and direct them.
Help me spend myself in seeking the lost,
Returning love for the love You gave me....

4. Lord, as I drift on the waters,
Be the resting place, of my restless heart.
My life's companion, my friend and refuge....

JESUS MY EVERYTHING (MAHER)

1. I've been looking for a reason,
I've been longing for a purpose.
I'm losing all my meaning,
I've run out of excuses.
Lord it's hard to know You,
I don't always see Your plan.
But holiness is calling me,

So take me as I am...

CHORUS

2. 'cause You are my everything,
You are the song I sing,
I'll do anything for You
Teach me how to pray,
To live a life of grace,
I'll go anywhere with You...
Jesus, be my everything...

Recessional Song

CHRIST BE OUR LIGHT (Farrell)

1. Longing for light, we wait in darkness.
Longing for truth, we turn to you.
Make us your own, your holy people,
Light of the world to see.

CHORUS

Christ, be our light! Sing in our hearts.
Shine through the darkness. Christ, be our light!
Shine in your Church gathered today.

2. Longing for peace, our world is troubled.
Longing for hope, many despair.
Your word alone has pow'r to save us.
Make us your living voice.
3. Longing for food, many are hungry,
Longing for water, many still thirst.
Make us your bread, broken for others,
shared until all are fed.

PARISH NEWS

ST. PATRICK'S CASSEROLES

WE NEED YOUR HELP!

Because of Covid-19 we stopped the casserole program. We are going to try to start again in February, 2021.

Have you ever wondered what the priest means when he says, "You can pick up your casseroles in the back of church"? The Ladies Sodality has sponsored a program with St. Patrick's Center to make casseroles for them. We take around 30 casseroles on the 3rd Thursday of February, April, June, August, October and December to St. Patrick's Center. When I say we I mean ladies and gentlemen from the parish and even some that have moved from the parish make the casseroles for us. Everyone is welcome to participate. The Ladies Sodality supplies the containers, some of the ingredients and the recipe. You would supply the hamburger, onions, celery and the cheeses. One of the committee women would call and ask if you could do a casserole for that month. You are under no obligation to say yes for that month if you have a lot going on, she will try you the next time. All you have to do is put the recipe together, freeze it and bring it up to the IHM hall. Then we take the casseroles to St. Patrick's Center. Right now, you would maybe only have to make a casserole two or three times a year. But we are asking for your help, if you would like to be on the list to make a casserole or if you have any questions about the program, please call one of the St. Patrick's casserole committee ladies listed below.

2020 CONTRIBUTION STATEMENTS

If you would like your 2020 Contribution Statement mailed to you, please drop a LONG #10 self-addressed stamped envelope in the Collection Basket. Statements will be sent out starting the second week of January.

I thought you should know – January 17, 2020

We are experimenting with a new format for our bulletin! We hope the new format will help people pray by giving them the song lyrics, readings, and responses for the Mass. We'd love your feedback on the new bulletin format, and tell us if you have good ideas on how to help people pray at Mass!

I'll be on vacation to see family from Tuesday February 2 to Friday February 5, so we won't have daily mass at Immaculate Heart of Mary on those days. God bless you all and keep praying for our parish!

Here's the final installment of our "Resolve" message series. This week we start another one

The Lord of the Rings is my favorite novel. It's by J.R.R. Tolkien; maybe you've seen the movie. The main characters are hobbit, little people. Now The Lord of the Rings is epic fantasy, and it's pretty standard in epic fantasy for characters to start small and end huge: by the end of the 14 books and 11,000 pages of Robert Jordan's Wheel of Time series, every farm boy and girl you fell in love with in chapters one through three is saving the world with superpowers. Tolkien's genius is that his main characters, the hobbits Frodo, Sam, Merry, and Pippin, become great while they stay small. Their victory is not in superpowers, but in the commitments they keep by humility and love. Tolkien understood imaginative fiction can renew our wonder at the world around us, at the way things really are, and his hobbits point out the wonder of our creation. Human beings are small and limited in many ways, yet in those limits, we can be great heroes. Just like the hobbits' choices changed the course of their world, so also our humble choices have lead us to greatness and heroism if they help us keep our commitments.

Resolve is the human quality that makes us ready to keep a commitment. It's different than willpower, because resolve applies to a specific commitment. It might take you years to grow in willpower, but you can choose things this week, today, to increase your resolve. So far in this message series on resolve, we've looked at two humble choices: the choice to get clear about what we're doing and why it is worth it, and the choice to think true and correct those falsehoods that bounce around in our heads, statements we accept about ourselves, but would never say about someone else, because they are just not true. Today, we're going to talk about a third choice that can increase our resolve. Maybe this choice is the most humble of all. To increase your resolve, shape circumstances.

Look, our circumstances—what's going on in and the things around us as we live—those circumstances affect us in big ways. We are not iron-willed Marvel Heroes like Captain Marvel or the Hulk. We are human beings, capable of greatness, certainly, but a greatest built on humility. So: when you resolve to do something, if you want to be successful, shape your circumstances. If you resolve to change your diet, get that bad food out of the house! If you want to get out and get walking, find a friend or a podcast or a prayer pattern that makes walking more fun! These are basic insights, right? But they sure make a difference.

The deeper insight that often escapes us is how much we can influence our circumstance, the full possibilities of changing the shape of our life in little ways or in big ones, to strengthen our resolve. So many things in your life don't have to be the just way they are today. My mom and dad got a lot of mileage for their marriage when they realized TV was optional.

An old fashioned way of expressing the same advice is "avoid the near occasion of sin". That means, notice in advance—or if you are like me, from bitter experience!—what circumstances tend to lead you to defeat, and change the circumstances. Notice in advance—or if you are like me, by repeated attempts and successes and lots of failures!—what circumstances tend to lead you to victory, and set up your life so those circumstances show up more often.

Let me give you an example. St. Paul wrote the Corinthians: "Avoid immorality. Every other sin a person commits is outside the body, but the immoral person sins against his own body. Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, which you have from God, and you are not your own?" Paul tells the Corinthians to be chaste. He wants them to be disciples with wisdom and integrity. He wants them to follow the teaching of Jesus. He wants them to honor the beautiful, joyful, and holy gift of a man and woman renewing their marriage vows and welcoming a new life into the world by the mutual gift of their bodies.

St. Paul knows that this is something very good. And, he knows that any use of these natural powers outside of the covenant of marriage is something very bad. But we don't have to take Paul's word for it. If we really pay attention, we can look around the world and see harm done by immorality, not just in huge social stuff human beings harmed by abortion or human trafficking or adultery. Look around and think, and you can see immorality's more pervasive harm in quiet poison of people who found exploitation or impermanence or heartbreak when what they needed to find was a good friend.

The good news is right there in St. Paul's simple direction, "Avoid immorality," and his homely encouragement, "The Lord is for the body; God raised the Lord and will raise us up by his power." Ordinary people like you and me can be chaste. The power of the Lord's resurrection is at work in us, so that we can be forgiven. Whatever our past, Jesus can make us new, make us at peace with God, make us good friends. Chastity really is possible for us.

Now, to make that possibility real, yes, it's important to get clear on why chastity matters, why it's worth it. To make the possibility real, yes, it's important to think true about how much God loves you right now as you are today, about how much God promises you, and about how much hope's there for you, because in each good confession the Lord Jesus removes your defeats while your victories shine ever before him. But do you know what? To make the possibility of chastity real for you, it is important to shape circumstances. A big part of the battle for chastity is the battle to shape circumstances. I just mean that we notice in our own lives and in the lives of others what tends to lead purity of heart, intent, and action. We notice in our own lives and in the lives of others what tends to lead to defeat and immorality. Then we make the humble, courageous choices, sometimes simple, sometimes challenging, to change our environment, to avoid the near occasions of sin, to set up for success, and to shape our circumstances.

Brothers and sisters, please allow me to give you an invitation for the week ahead. Think about your life. Identify a circumstance that weakens your resolve. Then tell someone you respect what you are going to do to shape that circumstance for victory.

In Matthew 4:19 we read the well-known quote, "Come follow me," Jesus said, "and I will make you fishers of men." Jesus was calling Simon and Peter; he is also calling us to be disciples who lead others to Jesus.

How do we do this? I feel often our actions speak louder than our words. I am reminded by the quotes, "Preach the gospel always: use words when necessary" and "You may be the only Bible a person reads" that as I profess to be a Christian, my words and actions must also be Christ like. I may be able to quote the Bible, go to Mass a few times a week and have a lovely collection of rosaries...if my words and actions are not that of Christ's love nor do I speak to others about Jesus, am I truly being a disciple? Am I helping people to know Jesus? Am I allowing the Holy spirit to work through me?

Actions are definitely crucial. With that said, I cannot dismiss the value of sharing our personal experience with the Lord. We do not want to fall short, by worshipping God without actually following Jesus. I pray that the Spirit will move me to share my personal experience; where I have seen him work in my life, where I have been blessed and the times I have been aware of His Presence.

When we share our love of Jesus and the blessings we have received, we are faith-sharing which is different than preaching. We are sharing the love, strength, forgiveness, guidance and other gifts we have received. There are times when God uses us to speak to others. May we offer our words and actions to the Lord, may we pray first; listen for guidance from the Spirit, then be aware of our actions and words. "Lord, I want to be a disciple, I want to help people to know you. Help me to please you. Amen."

Saint of the Week

Saints Timothy and Titus

Saints of the Day for January 26

Saints Timothy and Titus' Story

What we know from the New Testament of Timothy's life makes it sound like that of a modern harried bishop. He had the honor of being a fellow apostle with Paul, both sharing the privilege of preaching the gospel and suffering for it.

Timothy had a Greek father and a Jewish mother named Eunice. Being the product of a "mixed" marriage, he was considered illegitimate by the Jews. It was his grandmother, Lois, who first became Christian. Timothy was a convert of Paul around the year 47 and later joined him in his apostolic work. He was with Paul at the founding of the Church in Corinth. During the 15 years he worked with Paul, he became one of his most faithful and trusted friends. He was sent on difficult missions by Paul—often in the face of great disturbance in local churches which Paul had founded.

Timothy was with Paul in Rome during the latter's house arrest. At some period Timothy himself was in prison (Hebrews 13:23). Paul installed him as his representative at the Church of Ephesus.

Timothy was comparatively young for the work he was doing. Several references seem to indicate that he was timid. And one of Paul's most frequently quoted lines was addressed to him: "Stop drinking only water, but have a little wine for the sake of your stomach and your frequent illnesses" (1 Timothy 5:23).

Titus has the distinction of being a close friend and disciple of Paul as well as a fellow missionary. He was Greek, apparently from Antioch. Even though Titus was a Gentile, Paul would not let him be forced to undergo circumcision at Jerusalem. Titus is seen as a peacemaker, administrator, great friend. Paul's second letter to Corinth affords an insight into the depth of his friendship with Titus, and the great fellowship they had in preaching the gospel.

When Paul was having trouble with the community at Corinth, Titus was the bearer of Paul's severe letter and was successful in smoothing things out. Paul writes he was strengthened not only by the arrival of Titus but also "by the encouragement with which he was encouraged in regard to you, as he told us of your yearning, your lament, your zeal for me, so that I rejoiced even more.... And his heart goes out to you all the more, as he remembers the obedience of all of you, when you received him with fear and trembling" (2 Corinthians 7:7a, 15).

The Letter to Titus addresses him as the administrator of the Christian community on the island of Crete, charged with organizing it, correcting abuses, and appointing presbyter-bishops.

Reflection

In Titus we get another glimpse of life in the early Church: great zeal in the apostolate, great communion in Christ, great friendship. Yet always there is the problem of human nature and the unglamorous details of daily life: the need for charity and patience in "quarrels with others, fears within myself," as Paul says. Through it all, the love of Christ sustained them. At the end of the Letter to Titus, Paul says that when the temporary substitute comes, "hurry to me."
