Saint of the Week

Saint Cornelius

Saint of the Day for September 16

Saint Cornelius' Story

There was no pope for 14 months after the martyrdom of Saint Fabian because of the intensity of the persecution of the Church. During the interval, the Church was governed by a college of priests. Saint Cyprian, a friend of Cornelius, writes that Cornelius was elected pope "by the judgment of God and of Christ, by the testimony of most of the clergy, by the vote of the people, with the consent of aged priests and of good men."

The greatest problem of Cornelius's two-year term as pope had to do with the Sacrament of Penance and centered on the readmission of Christians who had denied their faith during the time of persecution. Two extremes were finally both condemned. Cyprian, primate of North Africa, appealed to the pope to confirm his stand that the relapsed could be reconciled only by the decision of the bishop.

In Rome, however, Cornelius met with the opposite view. After his election, a priest named Novatian (one of those who had governed the Church) had himself consecrated a rival bishop of Rome—one of the first antipopes. He denied that the Church had any power to reconcile not only the apostates, but also those guilty of murder, adultery, fornication, or second marriage! Cornelius had the support of most of the Church (especially of Cyprian of Africa) in condemning Novatianism, though the sect persisted for several centuries. Cornelius held a synod at Rome in 251 and ordered the "relapsed" to be restored to the Church with the usual "medicines of repentance."

The friendship of Cornelius and Cyprian was strained for a time when one of Cyprian's rivals made accusations about him. But the problem was cleared up.

A document from Cornelius shows the extent of organization in the Church of Rome in the mid-third century: 46 priests, seven deacons, seven subdeacons. It is estimated that the number of Christians totaled about 50,000. He died as a result of the hardships of his exile in what is now Civitavecchia.

Reflection

It seems fairly true to say that almost every possible false doctrine has been proposed at some time or other in the history of the Church. The third century saw the resolution of a problem we scarcely consider—the penance to be done before reconciliation with the Church after mortal sin. Men like Cornelius and Cyprian were God's instruments in helping the Church find a prudent path between extremes of rigorism and laxity. They are part of the Church's ever-living stream of tradition, ensuring the continuance of what was begun by Christ, and evaluating new experiences through the wisdom and experience of those who have gone before.

JOKE OF THE WEEK

This would be funny except there's no punch line...

I though you should know

2020 September 12-13

It was really great to meet so many of you in August! Thank you to everyone who took time to have dinner with me at the Haven or stopped by to talk with me after mass. I hope that we'll be able to continue to get to know each other in the months ahead.

I'm excited to announce that we are going to try something new for our Masses during coming weekends: a homily series named "Overflowing". For the next seven weeks, we will use the Sunday readings to learn about how faith in Christ makes possible for us an abundant, rich, exceptional, overflowing life. One of my favorite parts of being a Christian is the way we can live in a way most people can't and most people don't because Jesus is with us and for us. God's presence, action, love and power working in our lives opens for us the possibility of making amazing choices for good that most people don't consider.

In the coming weeks, we'll print my homily from the previous week in the bulletins, so that our parishioners who are homebound can join with us in what we are learning. Also, if you miss a week, you'll be able to use the next week's bulletin to catch up, and if you hear a message that might help a family member or a friend, you can share the message with them by giving them a copy of the next week's bulleting. Please say a prayer for me and for our "Overflowing" homily series.

Good preaching and good messages at our weekend Masses are very important for our parish. So let me know if you have topics you think would help people, and let me know if you have thoughts on how I can do better. God bless you!

The Steering Committee for the 2020 IHM “New to YOU” Rummage Sale

Dearest IHM Parishioners,

We wanted to start this communication off by thanking you for all of the fabulous treasures you have shared with us for our 8th Annual “New to YOU” Rummage Sale. As you well know, without your donations, there could not be a sale!

This year however, with all of the COVID 19 challenges we are facing, we have had to rethink the logistics of this great parish event, and have come to the conclusion that for the safety of both our awesome parish volunteers and guests, we will be unable to open our shop doors this September. The sale was scheduled for the weekend of September 19 and 20. At this point our plans are to work toward a really big sale in 2021. You will be the first to know those logistics, as we know more.

Additionally, and by popular demand of all those folks spending more time at home who are finally cleaning out that long forgotten desk drawer or spare bedroom closet, we have scheduled two more drop-off dates this Fall – one for Monday, September 14 and another for Monday, October 12 (11 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 5 to 7 p.m.) The same COVID 19 precautions will be in place for these two dates as were established earlier in the summer.

For more specific information about the drop-off dates or procedures, call or text Chris Verplancke at 314-418-5353 or via e-mail at camlverp@gmail.com or to volunteer, call Elizabeth Cassmeyer at 314-832-0541 or via e-mail at ramflor@sbcglobal.net.

Again, thank you for your support of the IHM parish community via this event. Please stay safe.

Deacons: Caring for You...Since A.D. 33

Please Support This Year's Deacon Formation Collection

Did you know that, over the last four decades, dozens of Deacons of the Archdiocese of St. Louis have, in addition to their parish service, volunteered countless hours of selfless, loving care for those in our midst who are suffering and in need?

Like those first seven ordained by the apostles, our deacons are called to be ministers of charity and models of Christ-like compassion for the sick, the poor, the imprisoned, and the dying. Deacons “wash the feet” of the faithful each day, seeing the face of Christ revealed in their ailing brothers and sisters. Deacons can be found sharing the Joy of the Gospel, offering us comfort in every facet of daily life—nursing homes, hospitals, hospices, prisons, schools, airports, businesses, and more. You can help our future deacons be Christ’s hands and feet with your charitable donation to this year’s Deacon Formation Collection. Deacon formation in the archdiocese relies heavily on the support of the annual Deacon Formation Collection, held this coming October 3rd and 4th. Please be as generous as possible. God bless you for your support!

ROSES FOR EXPECTANT MOMS!!!

If you are expecting a child, we as a Parish would like to pray for you throughout your pregnancy. There are red roses on the table in front of the Blessed Mother's statue in the back of Church. Please write the parents-to-be names and due date on the card attached to one of the roses asking for prayers until the delivery. After baby(ies) arrive, please call Kathy at 314-832-6553. We will then share your blessing in our bulletin.

Keep the following couples in your prayers:

Julie & Brian	September
Stephen & Leslie	November
Jesse & Ken	December
Jessica & Patrick	December

God Bless,

Dynamic Catholic, Alive! – Mercy (Again)

Our pope has talked constantly about mercy. I think it might be important...Anyway, Jesus teaches the disciples today about the NEED to forgive our neighbor from the heart and how unreasonable it is to expect mercy from God the Father if we have not forgiven those who trespass against us. Have we ever been like the servant in the parable by having received forgiveness and then withheld it from someone who has sinned against us? Please allow God to transform you in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. It is such a powerful sacrament in which God forgives our sins and gives us grace to overcome them in the future. Share the mercy of God with others and do not keep it to yourself.
