PARISH NEWS

Hello! My name is Fr. Aaron Nord. I am the new priest for Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish. I am very excited to be here--more about that in a moment--and eager to meet everyone. If you have a moment, stop by after church today to say hello. Rather than have a reception in the parish hall or an open house at the rectory, I'm going to be at The Haven every Saturday in August from 6 pm till 8 pm having dinner. If there is an open seat at my table, feel free to join me. If the seats are full, stop by to chat. Since some of you have ideas, questions, or business to discuss, I've set aside some 9am-11am on Tuesdays and from 1pm to 2pm on Sundays to meet with parishioners. You can make an appointment through our wonderful pastoral associate Debbie or simply drop by and see if I am free.

Most of all, I am very excited to serve at Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish because Jesus is with us. He is with us in the Eucharist each Sunday and in our tabernacle throughout the week. He heals us in Confession and he teaches us in his Word. There are so many people in our neighborhood we can help meet Jesus and believe in Him, and that possibility excites me, because when we help the lost and the little to find Jesus, they find eternal life. Also, I'm excited because Msgr. Billing told me Immaculate Heart of Mary parishioners really impressed him; I've certainly been impressed by the staff and volunteers whom I've met.

In conclusion, here are some Fr. Aaron Fun Facts. I grew up in St. Louis, but as a child, I loved the book "How to talk Minnesotan". Mom and dad gave one sister and four brothers--one of whom is also a brother priest--while also caring for 75 foster babies! I did seminary at Kenrick-Glennon but college at Truman State. In my 14 years of priesthood I've served in two parishes and I've had a long stint in Rome studying canon law. Today I still work as a canon lawyer for the Archdiocese, mostly doing work related to marriage. The board game I play most often is Terraforming Mars, and a good novel I read recently was "The Goblin Emperor" by Katherine Addison. History, business, and parish renewal interest me. My best personal prayer time usually comes when I'm in church reading a little of the bible, talking to God and thinking and then being quiet for a while.

Please pray for me--I will be praying for you. See you around!

Yours in Jesus and Mary,
Fr. Aaron

In order to continue to have Mass in person, we must continue to practice social distancing. Please follow these procedures:

- Single file line down the center isle for Communion
- Return to seat in a single file line down side isles
- Center isle seating in center of pews, NOT on the ends
- Side pews, sit near the wall NOT the isle
- Masks are to be worn entering and exiting church as well as while in line for Communion--may be removed while seated

Thank you for keeping our parish safe!

Saint of the Week

Saint Cajetan

Saint of the Day for August 7

Saint Cajetan's Story

Like most of us, Cajetan seemed headed for an "ordinary" life—first as a lawyer, then as a priest engaged in the work of the Roman Curia.

His life took a characteristic turn when he joined the Oratory of Divine Love in Rome, a group devoted to piety and charity, shortly after his ordination at 36. When he was 42 he founded a hospital for incurables at Venice. At Vicenza, he joined a "disreputable" religious community that consisted only of men of the lowest stations of life—and was roundly censured by his friends, who thought his action was a reflection on his family. He sought out the sick and poor of the town and served them.

The greatest need of the time was the reformation of a Church that was "sick in head and members." Cajetan and three friends decided that the best road to reformation lay in reviving the spirit and zeal of the clergy. Together they founded a congregation known as the Theatines—from Teate [Chieti] where their first superior-bishop had his see. One of the friends later became Pope Paul IV.

They managed to escape to Venice after their house in Rome was wrecked when Emperor Charles V's troops sacked Rome in 1527. The Theatines were outstanding among the Catholic reform movements that took shape before the Protestant Reformation. Cajetan founded a monte de pieta—"mountain or fund of piety"—in Naples, one of many charitable, non-profit credit organizations that lent money on the security of pawned objects. The purpose was to help the poor and protect them against usurers. Cajetan's little organization ultimately became the Bank of Naples, with great changes in policy.

Reflection

If Vatican II had been summarily stopped after its first session in 1962, many Catholics would have felt that a great blow had been dealt to the growth of the Church. Cajetan had the same feeling about the Council of Trent, held from 1545 to 1563. But as he said, God is the same in Naples as in Venice, with or without Trent or Vatican II. We open ourselves to God's power in whatever circumstances we find ourselves, and God's will is done. God's standards of success differ from ours.

JOKE OF THE WEEK

Got Stuff... ...that needs a new home?

Some items we cannot accept include: heavy exercise equipment; old, analog television sets; large, bulky appliances and furniture; magazines or encyclopedias, and items that have been recalled or taken off the market due to revised safety standards such as children's car seats, cribs, strollers, etc. We would also appreciate it if clothing could be separated from other items.

A letter recognizing your charitable donation for tax purposes is available upon request. Please bring a list of the items you are donating, plus their estimated value to facilitate this process.

THANKS FOR YOUR SUPPORT!

Hope all of you are staying safe in this summer of COVID 19!

Although unsure regarding the hosting of our now famous IHM New-To-You "Rummage Sale" at its usual time in September, we are still accepting your precious treasures to ready for the big event, whenever we may be able to pull it off!

Our THIRD drop-off date is:
MONDAY, AUGUST 10
Time: 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.
and
5 to 7 p.m.

With the pandemic, movement of your precious treasures will require more coordination than in the past.

1. Items should still be brought to the school building through the door across from the rectory.
2. Donors are asked to wear masks during their drop-off.
3. One donor will be able to drop off items at a time. Please remain in your vehicle, and a volunteer will unload the items for you.
4. Subsequent donors are asked to wait in their vehicles until a rummage sale committee member can assist them.
5. Rummage sale committee members will be masked and gloved. They will be moving your precious treasures directly from your vehicle to a special room to be stored for at least 48 hours untouched.
6. If you have furniture or large items, special arrangements will need to be made to drop these items off.

For more specific information about the drop-off date or procedure, call or text Chris Verplancke at 314-418-5353 or via e-mail at camlverp@gmail.com or to volunteer, call Elizabeth Cassmeyer at 314-832-0541 or via e-mail at ramflor@sbcglobal.net

SENIOR MOMENTS

A Special Thank You!!

Thank you to parishioner and Immaculate Heart of Mary alumni; Mary Beth Solari! Mary Beth is a sophomore at Notre Dame High School. She graciously volunteered to make seventy cards for our homebound and care facility parishioners. I wrote a letter, which she placed in the envelope with each card , as well as hand addressed and stamped all seventy envelopes! Our reach is always very important, but with our current times, the pandemic makes it even more essential.

I truly appreciate the love, time and creativity that went into Mary Beth's labor of love! I know her cards will brighten the day of our parishioners.

The Garden of Innocents What-Where-Why

The Garden of Innocents is two things. It is a group of caring people acting on the belief that every person is a child of God from the first moment of their existence and that they deserve to have the respect and dignity due them.

It is also a place, a place in Calvary Cemetery where, thanks to the generosity of Msgr. Robert McCarthy and Catholic Cemeteries of the Archdiocese of St. Louis, abandoned children are laid to rest.

That's the reason for the Garden of Innocents. Living out her Catholic faith, St. Peter-St. Charles parishioner Rebeca McKelvey filled a previously unmet need. She learned that when babies who have died are abandoned by their families, they were buried without the dignity and respect every person deserves. Without any rudiments, even clothing, they were buried in unmarked graves. She brought together like minded folks to provide what was needed to honor these innocent souls and express the love of God they enjoy together with all his creation.

Today, although the Garden of Innocents has provided over 40 burials for these special children of God it remains a little known ministry in our midst. Realizing that there are many folks in our parishes who would be eager and willing to support this ministry the Garden is reaching out with this information.

There are many ways you can be a part of this ministry. First by supporting it with prayer. You can also get on the Garden's email list to be notified when a funeral takes place and attend the funeral joining in honoring these children. If your skills include knitting or sewing, you can contribute by donating the items used to lay these children to rest. You can help by providing financial resources and there are even more ways to support the Garden as well. For more details and contact information check out the Garden's website: www.gardenofinnocents.org or on Facebook.

MINISTERS of COMMUNION

At this time, we will not be having Ministers of Communion.

Dynamic Catholic, Alive! – No Gift is too Small

The feeding of the five thousand is a reminder of two important ideas in being good stewards of the gifts that God has given us. First, when problems arise, God calls on us to be part of the solution. We should absolutely ask the Holy Spirit for guidance, but we must also be willing to act, even if that means being put in an uncomfortable position or doing something that others may not understand at first. Second, no gift is too small or insignificant in God's plan. Too many times we use the excuse of "I don't know how to do that", "I don't have enough time" or "I don't have enough money" when invited to participate in the mission and ministry of the Church. Know that God is calling each of us in the present moment and in our current circumstances into a loving relationship with Him. Your generosity at that specific moment may be the answer to someone else's prayer.
