Dear Parishioners,

In today's readings, we hear of the universal mission of the Church, which is to include not only those of the Chosen People of Israel but also the Gentiles. While the salvific plan of God began with the formation of Israel, the ultimate goal was to embrace the whole human race. As St. John reports to us in Revelations: "I, John, had a vision of a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people and tongue. They stood before the throne and before the Lamb, wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands."

The symbol of the palm branch is an ancient sign of those who were witnesses to Christ through their martyrdom. Throughout many churches and places of Christian conversion, one can see the palm branch as a sign that proclaimed their fidelity to the Gospel even to death. However, there are also signs of the palm upon the sarcophagi of Christians who did not necessarily die as martyrs, but nevertheless desired to show in some fashion their union with Christ and those who did witness to the Lord in that fashion.

In any case, St. John sees that these witnesses to the Gospel came from all sorts of backgrounds, which shows that God desires all of the human race to be saved, though it is up to us to receive that grace and persevere in it through our witness to Him and His Son.

As mentioned last week, I will be returning to full-time ministry at Kenrick-Glennon Seminary. My specific position which was announced last Monday is that of the Director of Spiritual Formation. This largely entails the planning of the annual retreats and days of recollection at the seminary as well as taking on a number of the men in spiritual direction. For the past nine years, I have been what is called a Formation Advisor, who in layman's terms is like a "drill instructor" who is to keep tabs on each of his assigned men and to guide them in their formation as seminarians and report to the rector of his progress throughout the year, and in a more formal way, in a final evaluation report at the end of the academic year, which will be forwarded to his vocation director and bishop.

The Spiritual Director operates in what we call the "internal forum" which means that what the seminarian discusses with him remains only between them and God, much like the Sacrament of Confession. It offers a space for each man to completely bear his soul, which places a lot of responsibility upon the Spiritual Director to guide each man along the path that God is revealing to him, so that he may progress in his union with the Lord and offer himself to the Lord's plan for his life. Needless to say, this is a special honor to walk with the seminarian and a great trust.

The date of new assignments is June 25th, after which I will be in residence at the seminary. Please pray for me and Msgr. Billing as well as all our newly ordained priests, that we may be faithful to where God has called us and grow as shepherds according to His Heart.

In the Hearts of Jesus & Mary,
Father Kristian Teater

SENIOR MOMENTS

May is the month for Mothers. I will be sharing prayers from and for Mothers. I discovered the following prayers on the Creighton University website:

A MOTHERS' DAY PRAYER

I [we] thank you, Creator of us all, for my [our] mother[s]. I thank you that she gave me life and nurtured me all those years. She gave me my faith, helping me to know you and to know Jesus and his ways. She taught me how to love and how to sacrifice for others. She taught me that it was okay to cry and that I should always tell the truth.

Bless her with the graces she needs and which you want to give her today. Help her to feel precious in your eyes today and to know that I love her. Give her strength and courage, compassion and peace. Bless her this day with your love. Amen.

GRATITUDE FOR MY MOTHER

Dear Lord, today I turn to you to give you thanks for my mother. With your own gift of life, she bore me in her womb and gave me life. She tenderly, patiently cared for me and taught me to walk and talk. She read to me and made me laugh. No one delighted in my successes more; no one could comfort me better in my failures. I am so grateful for how she mothered me and mentored me, and even disciplined me.

Please bless her, Lord, and comfort her. Help her loving heart to continue to love and give of herself to others. Strengthen her when she is down and give her hope when she is discouraged.

Most of all, Lord, on this Mother's Day, give my mother the graces she most needs and desires today. I ask you this, in the name of Jesus, our Lord and Savior forever and ever. Amen.

FOR A MOTHER WITH ALZHEIMER'S DISEASE

"Take Lord, and receive all my liberty, my memory, my understanding, my entire will... Give me only your love and your grace and that is enough for me."

Loving God,
Please bless every mother who has Alzheimer's disease.

She was with us children as we learned to walk.
-- Guide her uncertain steps today as her balance fails her.

She taught us to cross streets and be safe.
-- Help her not to get lost, even in her familiar surroundings.

She held us close in the terrors of the darkest nightmares.

-- May she not be frightened today by the reality of her life, which is strange and totally out of her control.

She cooked thousands of meals over decades of time.

-- Please allow her to accept the caring hand that now feeds her.

She changed diapers, Lord, and served you each times he did.

-- Please give her now the humility and grace to be served in this way.

Loving God, the familiar eyes of my mother now respond with a blank stare. She is unable to carry on a conversation, to ask about her family or to serve in the central role she has in our family. Help her accept the surrender of her life these days. Open her prayerful heart and fading mind to be aware of your presence with her, perhaps now, closer than ever. Give us, her family, the patience, courage and acceptance to love her as she is and to support her in her daily needs. Amen.

Glennon Sunday

June 2

Where Faith and Healing Unite

John Smith, Glennon Kid

See John's miraculous story in the new major motion picture Breakthrough.

SSM Health Cardinal Glennon Children's Hospital is the only free-standing Catholic pediatric hospital in the country.

When SSM Health Cardinal Glennon opened its doors in 1956, a promise was made to the community that any child in need of care would be welcomed, whether their parents could afford to pay for care or not. That promise still holds true today.

Many of you will remember the story of John Smith, a young man who fell through the ice of a frozen lake and was without a pulse for nearly an hour. His odds-defying recovery is the subject of the new movie, "Breakthrough".

Please join us in helping make miracles like John's possible by using the envelope in your May/June packet or online at glennon.org.

On behalf of our patients and families, may God bless you for providing hope, healing, faith and compassion to every child who walks through the doors at SSM Health Cardinal Glennon.
