LOVING COMMUNION AND EVANGELIZATION

God is a communion of persons, a communion of love. God invites us to share in this communion, calling us to form communities of love in our own lives. One of the most integral things we can do to evangelize is forming loving communities of joy. Do you want to evangelize more effectively? Form a community - at work, at your parish, among your friends. The fruit of this loving community, as Jesus tells us in the Gospel, is joy. A community, united in purpose and love, is one of joy, and this joy attracts others to seek what you possess. Therefore, let us seek to form loving communities of joy that lead people to Jesus Christ. (archstl.org/dynamic)

Dear Parishioners,

In this weekend's holy Gospel, we hear the familiar words of Christ regarding the communion of love that He has opened for us. As the Father loves Him, He says that He loves us. To compare the good that He wills for us to that which He receives from the Father is a tremendous reality. He is extending to us the love that exists within God Himself, and that love is called the Holy Spirit. Christ shows the will of God for us is to be one with Him and remain in that relationship for all eternity. It can be difficult for the human mind to wrap itself around such a profound reality, but the gift of faith raises our minds to be able to grasp it, even though it may remain mysterious to us, until we see God face to face. As we come before the Lord in the Holy Eucharist today, may we contemplate this profound truth so that it takes greater root in our soul and affects how we live our daily lives, which will make us better witnesses to the gift of love that comes to us from Christ Jesus.

Thanks to all who have sent notes and words of condolences for my family's loss of my grandmother. Let us pray for all those who have lost loved ones, especially those who had such a great impact on our family's health and stability. May they rest in the peace of the Resurrected Lord!

Congratulations to now Rev. Mr. Mark Madden on the occasion of his ordination to the transitional diaconate. At the time of writing this article, only a handful of people will know where he has been assigned for the next academic year as he completes his priestly formation at the seminary. Please continue to pray for him and Jack Ruzicka as well as all those whom the Lord may be calling from our parish to serve Him and His Church in the priesthood.

Finally, things are coming along in the daily Mass chapel. The floor is in the process of being levelled out a bit by Reinhold Flooring prior to carpeting. Our chapel chairs should be arriving shortly...at least that is what I have been told. Again, the move is motivated by the common desire of past plausible renters who all shared a desire to have that first room, where the chapel is currently. It also made sense to move the chapel away from that entrance, inasmuch as the regular din of people coming and going would be disruptive to the celebration of the Mass.

In the Hearts of Jesus and Mary,

Father Kristian Teater

Joke of the Week

In a Podiatrist's office:

"Time wounds all heels."

At an Optometrist's Office:

"If you don't see what you're looking for, you've come to the right place."

On a Plumber's truck :

"We repair what your husband fixed."

At a Tire Shop in Milwaukee:

"Invite us to your next blowout."

In a Non-smoking Area:

"If we see smoke, we will assume you are on fire and will take appropriate action."

On a Maternity Room door:

"Push. Push. Push."

In a Veterinarian's waiting room:

"Be back in 5 minutes. Sit! Stay!"

SENIOR MOMENTS

I read about an interview with Pope Francis. The article was from an Argentine publication Viva. Pope Francis issued a list of 10 tips to be a happier person, based on his own life experiences.

The Pope encouraged people to be more positive and generous, to turn off the TV and find healthier forms of leisure and even to stop trying to convert people to one's own religion. Move forward and let others do the same.

THE POPE'S 10 TIPS FOR A HAPPIER LIFE

1. "Live and let live." Everyone should be guided by this principle, he said, which has a similar expression in Rome with the saying, "Move forward and let others do the same."

2. "Be giving of yourself to others." People need to be open and generous toward others, he said, because "if you withdraw into yourself, you run the risk of becoming egocentric. And stagnant water becomes putrid."

3. "Proceed calmly" in life. The pope, who used to teach high school literature, used an image from an Argentine novel by Ricardo Güiraldes, in which the protagonist — gaucho Don Segundo Sombra — looks back on how he lived his life.

4. A healthy sense of leisure. The Pope said "consumerism has brought us anxiety", and told parents to set aside time to play with their children and turn off the TV when they sit down to eat.

5. Sundays should be holidays. Workers should have Sundays off because "Sunday is for family," he said.

6. Find Innovative ways to create dignified jobs for young people. "We need to be creative with young people. If they have no opportunities they will get into drugs" and be more vulnerable to suicide, he said.

7. Respect and take care of nature. Environmental degradation "is one of the biggest challenges we have," he said. "I think a question that we're not asking ourselves is: 'Isn't humanity committing suicide with this indiscriminate and tyrannical use of nature?'"

8. Stop being negative. "Needing to talk badly about others indicates low self-esteem. That means, 'I feel so low that instead of picking myself up I have to cut others down,'" the Pope said. "Letting go of negative things quickly is healthy."

9. Don't proselytize; respect others' beliefs. "We can inspire others through witness so that one grows together in communicating. But the worst thing of all is religious proselytism, which paralyzes: 'I am talking with you in order to persuade you,' No. Each person dialogues, starting with his and her own identity. The church grows by attraction, not proselytizing," the Pope said.

10. Work for peace. "We are living in a time of many wars," he said, and "the call for peace must be shouted. Peace sometimes gives the impression of being quiet, but it is never quiet, peace is always proactive" and dynamic.

It's wonderful that some of these tips are already in practice by our parish family. It is refreshing to have these suggestions from our Pope. Please keep our Holy Father in your prayers as he leads and guides our Church
