Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

During each of my two visits to our archdiocesan mission in Bolivia, the faith of the parishioners of Maria Reina (Mary Queen Parish) has inspired me. When distributing Holy Communion to the faithful during Mass, I could see the face of Christ in their faces. Their toil and hardships were evident, but even more pronounced was their peace and joy when receiving our Lord. On a deep level, they knew that heaven comes to earth in the Mass, and that their true joy is found in God. Please join with me in praying for these dear brothers and sisters in Christ, and in supporting the pastoral work of our St. Louis priests who serve them.

Our archdiocesan mission also tends to the distressing needs of individuals who cannot afford basic medical care, dental care, or even provide food for their families at times. Through the Health Clinic and social outreach programs, your generosity transforms the lives of thousands of people each year. Young people can prepare for the Sacraments of Holy Eucharist and Confirmation, receive tutoring and a hot meal, and participate in formation as missionary disciples. The elderly come together to celebrate life, grow in faith, and receive assistance with food and medicine if necessary. Couples prepare for Marriage, families baptize their children, and adults are received into the Church at Easter all because of your support.

No one is more supportive of the Latin America Apostolate, however, than Father Patrick Hayden and Father James Michler, who have been shepherding Maria Reina Parish and its chapels of Cristo Redentor (Christ the Redeemer) and Cristo Rey (Christ the King) for more than 25 years. Please join me in supporting these heroic priests and our archdiocesan mission by including them in your daily prayers and by generously supporting the Latin America Apostolate. As always, please be assured of my prayers for you and gratitude for your generosity.

Invoking every blessing upon you, I remain, yours truly,

Archbishop Robert J Carlson

(The envelope for the Latin America Apostolate is in your August packet.)

Saint of the Week

Saint John Vianney
Saint of the Day for August 4
(May 8, 1786 – August 4, 1859)

Saint John Vianney's Story

A man with vision overcomes obstacles and performs deeds that seem impossible. John Vianney was a man with vision: He wanted to become a priest. But he had to overcome his meager formal schooling, which inadequately prepared him for seminary studies.

His failure to comprehend Latin lectures forced him to discontinue. But his vision of being a priest urged him to seek private tutoring. After a lengthy battle with the books, John was ordained.

Situations calling for "impossible" deeds followed him everywhere. As pastor of the parish at Ars, John encountered people who were indifferent and quite comfortable with their style of living. His vision led him through severe fasts and short nights of sleep.

With Catherine Lassagne and Benedicta Lardet, he established La Providence, a home for girls. Only a man of vision could have such trust that God would provide for the spiritual and material needs of all those who came to make La Providence their home.

His work as a confessor is John Vianney's most remarkable accomplishment. In the winter months he was to spend 11 to 12 hours daily reconciling people with God. In the summer months this time was increased to 16 hours. Unless a man was dedicated to his vision of a priestly vocation, he could not have endured this giving of self day after day.

Many people look forward to retirement and taking it easy, doing the things they always wanted to do but never had the time. But John Vianney had no thoughts of retirement. As his fame spread, more hours were consumed in serving God's people.

Even the few hours he would allow himself for sleep were disturbed frequently by the devil.

Who, but a man with vision, could keep going with ever-increasing strength? In 1929, Pope Pius XI named him the patron of parish priests worldwide.

Reflection

Indifference toward religion, coupled with a love for material comfort, seem to be common signs of our times. A person from another planet observing us would not likely judge us to be pilgrim people, on our way to somewhere else. John Vianney on the other hand, was a man on a journey, with his goal before him at all times.

Saint John Vianney is the Patron Saint of:

JOKE OF THE WEEK

I believe my house is haunted.
 Every time I look in my mirror a crazy old lady stands in front of me so I can't see my reflection!

SENIOR MOMENTS

THE RICH FOOL

In today's Gospel, the rich man was very obsessed with his abundant harvest. He thinks only of accumulating in order to guarantee a life without worries. Luke: 18-20 He says: "This is what I will do. I will pull down my barns and build bigger ones, and store all my grain and my goods in them and I will say to my soul: My soul, now you have plenty of good things laid for many years to come, take things easy, eat, drink, have a good time".

Was Jesus a little harsh with the rich man? Calling him a "Fool" seems harsh. I guess I do not like that word. Part of me understands that the rich man wanted to be amply prepared for life and retirement. Especially in the times he lived which had immense hardship, harsh social and political conditions, famine; they suffered under unfair and excruciating taxes.

Isn't preparing for retirement, to the best of your ability, being responsible? Yes. Yes it is. Where our friend the rich man goes astray, he only thinks of himself. Nowhere in his planning was the thought of sharing his abundance with his workers, or widow, or those who were starving.

So it is with someone who stores up treasures for himself instead of becoming rich in the sight of God.

How can one become rich for God?

Jesus gives us suggestions throughout scripture; Treat people the way you want to be treated, it is better to give than receive, the greatest is the smallest.

"Jesus, help me see what I have stored in "my barn" that I can give to help others. Show me what are the real values and riches in my life. May I only hold on to what brings me closer to you. Amen."

Others are welcome - that cost is $30. BONUS - It is monthly T-shirt give - away night. Spaces are limited, so be sure to reserve your spot soon. You may reserve your spot by contacting Heather at 314-351-1318 ext. 201. Once you call and reserve your spot, you may make out your check to South Grand Senior Ministry and mail it to 5418 Louisiana Ave, 63111. Please include an emergency contact name and number. Let's Go Cards!!

SAFETY TIPS - STAY HYDRATED, STAY SAFE

While being properly hydrated is always important, in summer heat it can be lifesaving. Our natural sense of thirst diminishes with age so it is important to drink water "by the clock," as you would schedule medications. This allows better absorption of nutrients from foods as well as medications, and reduces the risk of dehydration. Dehydration, especially in the elderly, can increase confusion and muscle weakness, urinary track infections, and cause nausea. Nausea, in turn will prevent the person from wanting to eat, causing more dehydration.

Prevention Tips:

- ◆ Encourage 6-8 cups of liquid every day (or an amount suggested by the doctor)
- ◆ Serve beverages at room temperature
- ◆ Provide food with high water content; watermelon, soups
- ◆ Avoid caffeine and alcohol, which causes frequent urination and dehydration.
