LENT 2019

MARCH 10, 2019

First Sunday of Lent

Jesus was led by the Spirit into the desert for forty days, to be tempted by the devil.

Dynamic Catholic, Alive! – In the Gospel reading today, we hear how Jesus went off alone in the desert for 40 days to pray and fast. This is a perfect opportunity for us to reflect on our busy lives filled with constant noise to determine how we can disconnect and take time alone in conversation with God.

As adopted sons and daughters of God, we have been called to give of ourselves in many ways but when we give we also have to take time to replenish our spiritual resources as well. If we don't do this, we will find ourselves empty. Throughout the Gospels we find many examples of Jesus taking time for silent mental prayer. That is what allowed Him to withstand the temptation of the devil in the desert. That is also what helped Him to endure His great suffering. Jesus stayed in a personal relationship with His Father and He trusted that His Father would be with Him throughout all of His tribulation. We, like Jesus, need to maintain our personal relationship with God and remember as Paul shared in his letter to the Romans, "(God) enriches all who call upon Him."

LENTEN REGULATIONS

The Pope and the American Bishops have outlined obligatory fast and abstinence as follows:

Ash Wednesday (Wednesday March 6th) and Good Friday (April 19th) are days of abstinence for all Catholics over the age of 14. On these two days, fast, as well as abstinence, is also obligatory for those from the ages of 18-59.

Abstinence means refraining from meat.

Fast means one full meal a day, with two smaller meals and nothing between meals (liquids are permitted). No Catholic will lightly excuse himself or herself from this obligation.

All Fridays in Lent are days of abstinence from meat. Here again Catholics will not hold themselves lightly excused, but if there is a serious health problem, this obligation would not apply. We should strive to make Lent a time of prayer and penance.

1. Looking for a fun and valuable Ministry in our parish?
2. Looking for a way to put your ideas about protecting Mother Earth into action?
3. Looking to get acquainted with other Immaculate Heart of Mary parishioners and learn more about the IHM Parish Community?
4. Have lots of creative energy and looking for an outlet?
5. Just like a great bargain?

If you answered "YES" to any one of these questions, then this may be the opportunity you have been waiting for!

Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish has sponsored, for the last 6 years, an annual Fall "New to YOU Rummage Sale." This event has been incredibly successful in allowing folks in our parish, and the greater St. Louis community, to donate (recycle) items that they no longer want. And second, to find great bargains on items that they might need now (reuse)! Most importantly, it has also been a great opportunity for parishioners to come together and get to know one another, while creating an awesome event. And finally, as a fundraiser for our parish….it hasn't been too bad either!
So Please consider becoming a part of the team for our

7th Annual "New to YOU Rummage Sale."

Dates for Rummage Sale
September 14th & 15th!!

Dear Parishioners,

As we begin the season of Lent, we hear the familiar Gospel passage relaying the story of our Lord's Temptation in the Desert, when prior to His public ministry, He engages in a spiritual retreat, during which the Enemy attempts to draw Him to fall into evil. The three temptations represent the three basic ways that all of us can be tempted: bread = wealth; kingdoms = power; and jumping from the parapet = fame.

While we do rely on goods of this earth, wealth is not all that there is in this life, let alone does it lead to fulfillment. As our Lord says: "One does not live on bread alone." There is more to the human person and human fulfillment that the things of this world cannot satisfy, nor could they every satisfy us in eternity, for they are limited to this life. While we rely on a level of power to have control over our lives, and we sometimes share in authority over others, we recognize that the power of self-determination or power over others is not an end in itself, but in any exercise of power or choice, even when it is only about oneself, it must be directed by God's Will, without which we would not even exist. His Will assists us to make the right choice: "You shall worship the Lord, your God, and Him alone shall you serve." Finally, while we rely upon a good reputation, sometimes our desire for fame can get out of control. In the final temptation, the Enemy seeks to make Him tempt the Father by throwing Himself from the parapet so that the Father would save Him and then by this spectacular show, reveal to all His glory as the Son. The Lord Jesus knows that such a thing is not only against the Father's Will and His plan of salvation, but to do so would be some attempt to test the Father's Love of Him, and so He rejects the temptation: "You shall not put the Lord, your God, to the test."

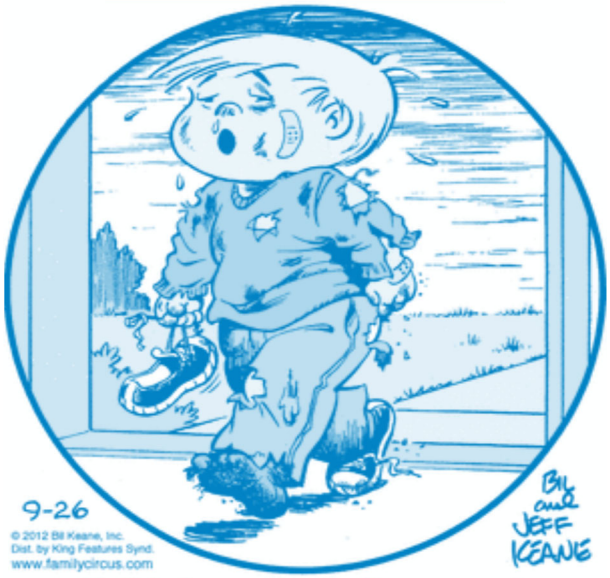

As we enter the "desert" of Lent, we face our own temptations and weaknesses directly. They are usually the guiding factor in choosing our personal penances for the season, which we pray will help us in our purification and strengthening. May the Lord grant us the strength to persevere against any temptations that we may face to dissuade us from our devotions this season, so that we may enter the joy of Easter with hearts made freer by such acts, and more prepared to be received by Him in eternal life.

In the Hearts of Jesus & Mary,

Father Kristian Teater

Joke of the Week

"I think my guardian angel took the day off."

SENIOR MOMENTS

IN THE DESERT

Every year on the first Sunday of Lent we read one of the Gospels which tells us about Jesus' forty days in the desert, the temptations of Satan and the protection of the angels.

Have you or someone you love, ever felt as if you have been in the desert every bit of forty days? I know I have, more than once. In the desert we can feel alone, abandoned, empty, doubt that our lives will ever be the "same," will it ever improve? It is at these times we can be brought to our knees with a lack of faith in ourselves, our lives, the people or situations that surround us. We can even have doubt of God's presence or promises. Years ago, I remember a previous pastor, Father John telling me, 'to embrace this time. This is an opportunity to grow closer to the Lord.' This made a profound impact on how I perceive the difficult times that arrive.

Do not be afraid to enter your desert. This is where we can find God. He loves us. By accepting our helplessness, He can fill us.

We have "wild beasts" that try to attack our faith; poor health, life not being at all what we anticipated, financial worries, difficulty walking, hearing, performing daily tasks, estranged family, differences of opinions, death of a loved one, a feeling of disconnect from God, no sense of His Presence….We also have the "angels" who minister to us, the stranger with a kind word, a compassionate medical person, family, friends, neighbors, our parish family and staff…..One of our "wild beasts" can be confiding in others and allowing them to help us.

Being "brought to our knees" may be exactly where we need to be. Whether you are experiencing "wild beasts" or content; consider allowing the forty days of Lent to be our desert, our place of retreat to invite honesty with ourselves and God.

Possible reflections:

1.What can I do this lent to deepen my trust in God as my true source of peace and strength?

2.Allowing myself time to be aware of the "angels" in my life.

3.How can I spend my time to grow closer to God?

RENEW COULD BE A GREAT LENTEN ACTIVITY

Lenten Renew Begins This Week!
Wednesday March 13th 10:00 a.m.

During the six weeks of Lent please join us in the Rectory Meeting Room, as we spend time growing closer to fellow parishioners and learning about and discussing our faith. We all learn from each other. We are each a work in progress. We are never too old or too young to grow closer to God. If we open ourselves to Him, He will not disappoint us!

Everyone is welcome! Everyone has something to offer. We all have been blessed with our own unique gifts. Hope to see You there! Oh and one more thing….. We have coffee, tea and lots of goodies!

#STAND WITH SISTERS

National Catholic Sisters' Week is March 8-14th, (Will actually be celebrated the month of March.) Consider sending a note to a Sister who has left you with a memory or that made a lasting impression in your life. Let her know that she is valued.
